F. Public Participation

- Marge Eilerman: Had concerns about language in the classroom and the use of inappropriate language in the classroom.
- Christina Robinson: Had concerns about language that was used in a classroom. It is inappropriate and should not be allowed and wants to make sure it has been addressed.
- Amy Fullenkamp: She wanted to know if a syllabus could be provided for students and parents to follow from the class that had language concerns.
  - Asked a question during financial reports of why extra lunches cost so much, especially Papa John's. Asked if we get discounts on pizza when we buy it or if and how it works and how prices were determined.
  - Concerned about cafeteria soggy chicken nuggets, uncrustables that were still frozen and kids being hungry.
  - Wanted to know if the Board minutes are in a vault or available for public view. Mr. Hamilton stated they were on the website for viewing. She stated she could not find them on the website.
